Vitamins to VEGA!

3rd. July. 2024

VITAMIN

01

According to market news, Jilin Beisha Pharmaceutical's vitamin E production line plans to shut down for maintenance at the end of August, which is expected to last 8-10 weeks; the current price of vitamin E 50% feed grade in the local European market has risen to 10 euros, and a small amount has begun to be traded!

AMINO ACID

02

The market price of methionine has slightly decreased, and the market price is USD3050-USD3100/MT. The enterprise price of liquid methionine is USD2280-USD2330/MT, and the price in the trade market remains stable, with a small amount of bargaining transactions. It is expected that the overall market will be weak in the later period.

API

03

The current market price of colistin sulfate is stable at USD13.8-14.3/KG. Some factories have tight delivery schedules and customers are more receptive to prices. Factory prices have remained firm recently and are expected to run smoothly in the future.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

Recently, Baolingbao stated that the domestic use of allulose is still under review and the approval time is uncertain. The company uses synthetic biology, enzyme engineering and fermentation engineering technologies to biosynthesize human milk oligosaccharides, and studies related strains of new sugar source products such as erythritol and allulose to improve product conversion rate and energy utilization, and strive to enhance the company's cost advantage.
